DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 4-6, 9-11, 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The specification does not provide sufficient details how the sensor generates signal and that signal controls the processor operation.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Rife.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2, 3, 8 and 12 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rife in view of Cipolla et al.

Rife discloses the claimed invention except the power consumption range of the microprocessor. Cipolla discloses the cooling arrangement indicating the power consumption of the microprocessor (col. 2, lines 6-11). It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to provide sufficient cooling in range as disclosed by Cipolla et al. for the arrangement disclosed by Rife since the common microprocessors work in the range as disclosed by Cipolla.

5. Claims 4-6, 9-11, 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rife in view of Kaminski.

Rife discloses the claimed invention except sensor generating signal for warning and stopping CPU operation due to temperature change. Kaminski discloses the system having the temperature sensor and control system. It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to provide the sensor controlling the fan rotation and signal to the microprocessor to cease operation as disclosed by Kaminsky.
